Kuala Lumpur (The Star/ANN) - Irish rock band The Cranberries rocked Stadium Negara in their maiden concert here.

Fronted by female vocalist Dolores O'Riordan, they kept 8,000 fans at the concert under their spell last night with classic hits like Zombie, Linger and Dreams.

The Cranberries delivered an energetic performance that chronicled their career, which spanned over two decades.

During the one-and-a-half hour concert, the band also previewed material from their newly released studio album Roses.

Since their debut in 1992, The Cranberries have sold more than 30 million albums.

Their concert in Malaysia was jointly managed by The WonderLand and Sevent Media.
