ROBINSON BACKS

UNEMPLOYED

Presidential candidate Mary Robinson visited the Centre on Monday 15th October and spoke of her concern about the problem of unemployment.

"I am very conscious of the issues that face the people of Ireland", she told Hatch 33.

"For the past five months I have been travelling the length and breadth of the country and I've come face to face with the misery caused by unemployment and emigration."

Since her campaign was launched in Limerick on May 1st, Mary has made a point of visiting Unemployed Centres throughout the country.

"There are a million people in this country living in poverty and they need a President who can identify with them."

Mary believes that the office of Mary Robinson and Joan Condon, Director of L.C.U.

President shouldn't be used to reward loyal party politicians who are up for retirement.

Because she is not a member of any political party, Mary is completely independent.

She wants the Presidency to become a resource for all the people especially the unemployed and underprivileged.

Confident that she will be the next President of Ireland, Mary outlined
