We've made the conversion of your roof area a simple matter.

Velux roof windows can be installed and sealed in a day, from start to finish. If you're handy, you should be able to install Velux windows yourself.

Velux windows give you considerable savings over conventional dormer windows. Because they're designed specifically for roof areas, they're the most efficient way of letting in light.

They're double glazed, weather tight, and they come with a range of roller blinds, venetian blinds and awnings that are integrated into the window design.

Post the coupon for a close look at Velux roof windows, and a book full of ideas on how to use your attic.

dry fill cavity wall insulation for existing houses

Aerobead

Aerobead is the ideal answer for insulation in existing houses

Southern Chemicals - pioneers of various Aerobead Insulation Systems over the past 23 years, and proprietors of the brand name 'Aerobead' - now introduce Aerobead to the Irish Market.

AEROBEAD has already proved itself a revolutionary new insulation system for existing cavity wall houses. The biggest single heat loss is through walls - 35% - but now you can achieve over 60% saving in heat loss through the walls with AEROBEAD.

AEROBEAD has been tested and evaluated by the I.I.R.S. The complete installation job takes only one day. Free surveys and estimates on request from Southern Chemicals Ltd.

"Mr. Music" For Limerick

CLONMEL'S "Mr. Music", Tommy O'Brien, will be in Limerick on Thursday night next, April 17th, to play records from his priceless classical and operatic collection. The concert, at the V.E.C. School of Professional Management Studies, O'Connell Avenue (formerly the School of Electrical Engineering), is open to the public and has been organised by the Limerick German Society for 8 p.m.

Major Fashion Show

ON THE 14th April the International Wool Secretariat presents an International Fashion Show and the Woolmark Young Designer of the Year Competition, at 8 p.m., at Jury's Hotel, Dublin.

Some of the world's top designers, including Pierre Cardin and Cerruti, will show designs made in Pur New Wool Irish Fabrics. Other designers showing will include France Andreie, Dejac, Ralph Lauren, Lanvin, Max Mara, Aquascutum, Jeff Sayre, Ib Jorgensen and Wolfangel.

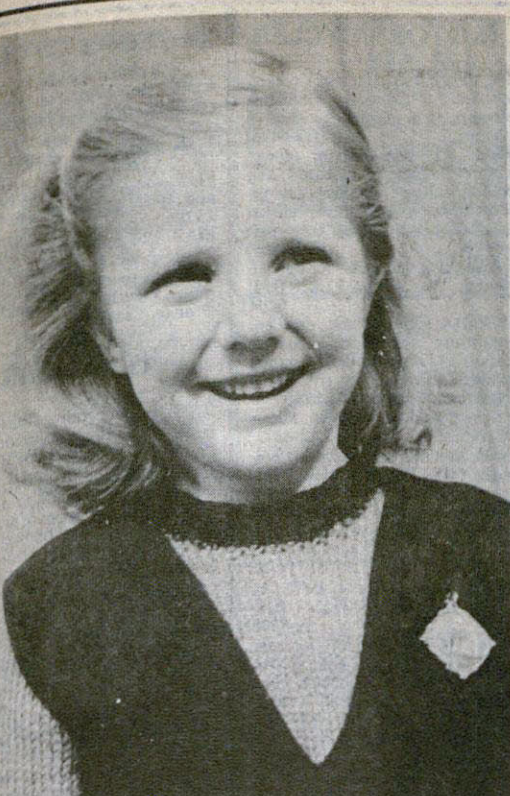

The Fashion Show will also feature the final of the Woolmark Young Designer of the Year Competition, 1980, the prizes of which will be presented by Mr. Raphael Burke, I.D., Minister for State of the Department of Industry, Commerce and Tourism.

Inter-Schools Quiz

BEFORE a capacity audience in the club pavilion recently the C.B.S. Sexton St. team of D. Hanly, M. Nolan, and M. Treacy emerged as quiz winners, carrying off the Commercial Bank trophies. Having defeated Scoil Carmel in the first round, C.B.S. narrowly made the final with a win over a very good St. Clement's team. The final with Crescent which was represented by G. Machin, W. Machin and J. Herilly was very close and amid scenes of great excitement, C.B.S. held on to win. Rev. Fr. McNamee, P.P., complimented the Bord na nOg Committee on its enterprise in organising the competition and congratulated all the eight teams on their performance in a very enjoyable quiz.

Maureen Blakie, of 37 Hyde Avenue, Ballinacurra Weston, Limerick, who will be playing the part of Maria in the "Sound of Music" at Our Lady of Lourdes Youth Centre from 27th April to the 1st of May.

EDITED BY BERNARD CAREY

Mayor Bobby Byrne (centre) pictured at the Fire Station where he made a presentation to Paddy Brennan (left of Mayor) and also to Jimmy Griffin on the occasion of their retirement from the Fire Brigade after many years service.

Cailini agus buachaillí on Modh Scoil a fuair duaiseanna sa bhfiliocht, sa dramaíocht sa bhearla agus i labhairt na Gaeilge i bhFeile Luimni, leis na muinteoir, Iníon Ní Mhaolchathaigh, Iníon Nic Uladh, príomh-Oide, Bean Valteily agus Iníon Ní Nuanáin.

Re-union

THE second re-union of the 10th Uisneach Battalion, which was stationed in McCann Barracks, Templemore, during the Emergency, will be held at the Templemore Arms Hotel, on Saturday, 26th April. All ex-members of the Battalion or its attachments, who wish to attend the re-union should apply for tickets to the Treasurer, Mr. Dominick Aherne, 48 Cadogan Road, Fairview, Dublin 3.

Marie Sweeney of 21 Hyde Avenue, Ballinacurra Weston, Limerick, who will be starring in the "Sound of Music" at Our Lady of Lourdes Youth Centre concert which is taking place on the 27th of April until the 1st of May.

These Young Munster supporters seem to have lost interest during the course of the Young Munster v. Dolphin match in Cork.

Another world championship

EOIN O'Suilleabhain of 19 Rhebogue Avenue, brought to Limerick last week-end his first world championship in Irish dancing in five years when he was successful at the Oireachtas Rince na Cruinne held in Dun Laoghaire. Eoin, a pupil of the Nolan School of Dancing was, in fact, the last Limerick person to win a world championship, something which he achieved in 1975. He has enjoyed remarkable success in the series since he first entered in 1974. It is to his credit that he has won three All-Ireland Championships and a similar number of world championships in various age groups.

World Famous Orchestra

THE L.M.A. presents the world famous Franz Liszt Orchestra of Budapest in St. Mary's Cathedral, this Friday evening (April 11th) at 8.00 p.m. sharp. The Orchestra has toured all the world to tremendous acclaim and is currently touring England and Ireland, with concerts in Galway, Cork, Limerick, Dublin, Derry and Belfast. The soloist will be the Leeds Prize Winner, Andras Schiff (who has already given three recitals for the L.M.A.). On this prestigious occasion he will play Mozart's A major Concerto. The Concert will also include Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik and Tchaikovsky's Serenade for Strings. The Concert will be recorded by RTE for future transmission. Hence, the L.M.A. urges patrons to be in their seats by 7.45 p.m. The concert must start on time and late-comers will have to miss the first item. Tickets are available at Riordan's Travel at £4 and £3 (reserved), and £2 (unreserved). Student and O.A.P. tickets are available at £1.00. On the evening of the concert tickets will only be available at £4 and £3. Hence, those wishing to pay £2 must purchase their tickets in advance at Riordan's Travel. The concert should be a really outstanding occasion. Ballet fans, incidentally, will be glad to hear that the famous film The Children of Theatre Street will be shown at the Royal Cinema on Wednesday, May 1st. Commentary is by Princess Grace of Monaco. Full details will be available later.

An Oige A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of the Thomond Regional Group of An Oige will take place in the An Oige Youth Hostels, Pery Square, on Saturday, April 12th, commencing at 8 p.m. The Hon National Secretary and the Secretary of the executive Committee of An Oige will be in attendance at the meeting. Matters down for report and discussion will deal with all An Oige's activities during the past twelve months. However, one item that is bound to give rise to an amount of thought-provoking comment is that despite the fact that the membership of An Oige in the region has increased to over 900 members, it is extremely difficult to encourage, entice or inveigle new young members on to the Regional Committee. It is hoped that at this meeting that some members who have enjoyed and received so much pleasure from An Oige will volunteer to help others to derive the same pleasure by doing some committee work to assist them. Needless to remark, this meeting is open to all past, present and potential members of An Oige. As usual the proceedings will conclude with tea.

Seminars on Deaf

THE first of a series of seminars in the nineties dealing with the handicap of deafness and hard of hearing will be held in the Glentworth Hotel, Glentworth Street, Limerick, on Saturday, May 3rd, and the theme will be "The Deaf Child - The Pre-School Years". The seminars will deal with every aspect of deafness from diagnosis in babyhood to old age and the Board of Directors has decided that in keeping with the national character of the Association the first of these important meetings should be held outside Dublin and Limerick has been chosen as the venue.

"Mr. Music" For Limerick

CLOMEL'S "Mr. Music", Tommy O'Brien, will be in Limerick on Thursday night next, April 17th, to play records from his priceless classical and operatic collection. The concert, at the V.E.C. School of Professional Management Studies, O'Connell Avenue (formerly the School of Electrical Engineering), is open to the public and has been organised by the Limerick German Society for 8 p.m.

Tommy's weekly programme, "Your Choice and Mine" continues to attract a huge listening public and has long been one of radio's most popular radio programmes, according to RTE. On his all-to-rare personal appearances, Tommy has also attracted sell-out audiences. But he has built up a very special affection for Limerick with its musical and operatic background, and once said that even if he decided to call a halt to his travels, he would still make a point of coming to Limerick. All his appearances in the City so far have been heavily attended and undoubtedly this will also be the case with his coming concert.

Major Fashion Show

ON THE 14th April the International Wool Secretariat presents an International Fashion Show and the Woolmark Young Designer of the Year Competition, at 8 p.m., at Jury's Hotel, Dublin.

Some of the world's top designers, including Pierre Cardin and Cerruti, will show designs made in Pur New Wool Irish Fabrics. Other designers showing will include France Andreie, Dejac, Ralph Lauren, Lanvin, Max Mara, Aquascutum, Jeff Sayre, Ib Jorgensen and Wolfangell.

The Fashion Show will also feature the final of the Woolmark Young Designer of the Year Competition, 1980, the prizes of which will be presented by Mr. Raphael Burke, I.D., Minister for State of the Department of Industry, Commerce and Tourism.

Inter-Schools Quiz

BEFORE a capacity audience in the club pavilion recently the C.B.S. Sexton St. team of D. Hanly, M. Nolan, and M. Treacy emerged as quiz winners, carrying off the Commercial Bank trophies. Having defeated Scoil Carmel in the first round, C.B.S. narrowly made the final with a win over a very good St. Clement's team. The final with Crescent which was represented by G. Machin, W. Machin and J. Herilly was very close and amid scenes of great excitement, C.B.S. held on to win. Rev. Fr. McNamee, P.P., complimented the Bord na nOg Committee on its enterprise in organising the competition and congratulated all the eight teams on their performance in a very enjoyable quiz.

Re-union

THE second re-union of the 10th Uisneach Battalion, which was stationed in McCann Barracks, Templemore, during the Emergency, will be held at the Templere Arms Hotel, on Saturday, 26th April. All ex-members of the Battalion or its attachments, who wish to attend the re-union should apply for tickets to the Treasurer, Mr. Dominick Ahearne, 48 Cadogan Road, Fairview, Dublin 3.

Marie Sweeney of 21 Hyde Avenue, Ballinacurra Weston, Limerick, who will be starring in the "Sound of Music" at Our Lady of Lourdes Youth Centre concert which is taking place on the 27th of April until the 1st of May.

These Young Munster supporters seem to have lost interest during the course of the Young Munster v. Dolphin match in Cork.

Another world championship

EOIN O'Suilleabhain of 19 Rhebogue Avenue, brought to Limerick last week-end his first world championship in Irish dancing in five years when he was successful at the Oireachtas Rince na Cruinne held in Dun Laoghaire. Eoin, a pupil of the Nolan School of Dancing was, in fact, the last Limerick person to win a world championship, something which he achieved in 1975.

He has enjoyed remarkable success in the series since he first entered in 1974. It is to his credit that he has won three All-Ireland Championships and a similar number of world championships in various age groups.

The Nolan School of Dancing fared remarkably well in the championships in Dun Laoghaire, taking two seconds and one third, as well as the gold won by Eoin. Over the last decade or so members of the Nolan School have won twenty All-Ireland Championships and fourteen world championships.

On his return to Limerick Eoin, who is son of Mr. and Mrs. Padraigh O'Suilleabhain, was greeted by the Mayor of Limerick, Cllr. Bobby Byrne.

World Famous Orchestra

THE L.M.A. presents the world famous Franz Liszt Orchestra of Budapest in St. Mary's Cathedral, this Friday evening (April 11th) at 8.00 p.m. sharp. The Orchestra has toured all the world to tremendous acclaim and is currently touring England and Ireland, with concerts in Galway, Cork, Limerick, Dublin, Derry and Belfast.

The soloist will be the Leeds Prize Winner, Andras Schiff (who has already given three recitals for the L.M.A.). On this prestigious occasion he will play Mozart's A major Concerto. The Concert will also include Mozart's Eine Kleine Nachtmusik and Tchaikovsky's Serenade for Strings.

The Concert will be recorded by RTE for future transmission. Hence, the L.M.A. urges patrons to be in their seats by 7.45 p.m. The concert must start on time and late-comers will have to miss the first item. Tickets are available at Riordan's Travel at £4 and £3 (reserved), and £2 (unreserved). Student and O.A.P. tickets are available at £1.00. On the evening of the concert tickets will only be available at £4 and £3.

Ballet fans, incidentally, will be glad to hear that the famous film The Children of Theatre Street will be shown at the Royal Cinema on Wednesday, May 1st. Commentary is by Princess Grace of Monaco. Full details will be available later.

An Oige A.G.M.

The annual general meeting of the Thomond Regional Group of An Oige will take place in the An Oige Youth Hostels, Pery Square, on Saturday, April 12th, commencing at 8 p.m. The Hon National Secretary and the Secretary of the executive Committee of An Oige will be in attendance at the meeting.
