Christmas albums

Now, that concludes our brief look at 'Compilations' and 'Greatest Hits' albums for this year. I'm sure you'll agree that, even among these few, there's something that would suit someone you know as a present.

Others

Of course, 'Compilations' and 'Greatest Hits,' while being big sellers, definitely won't dominate the market. Artists such as Madonna with her Immaculate Collection, The Pet Shop Boys, George Michael, Kylie Minogue's new Rhythm Of Love, Whitney Houston and New Kids On The Block, etc., etc., will all sell extremely well.

All the albums included in the Gazette were supplied by Costello-Stardiscs, 3 O'Connell St., Limerick.

It's panto time again, hip, hip, hooray . . .

Babes in the Wood

CHRISTMAS time . . . mistle-toe and pantomime, and, let's face it, what better way to end the festive season and start off the New Year than a visit to the Crescent Theatre. Limerick, to indulge in the magic that is pantomime.

Babes in the Wood is the Limerick Panto Society's sixth production and this season, after an absence of three years, heralds the return of Tony Cusack to the producer's chair. The plot is steeped in intrigue and adventure and sees Robin Hood and his Merry Men coming to the rescue of the distraught Babes.

Panto in Limerick wouldn't be the same without the presence of Oliver Stapleton and Basil Collinson on stage and their antics and general carry-on will surely play a major part in the show's success.

The line-up of cast includes many familiar faces such as Noreen Byrnes who plays the villainous role of 'Coke' alongside her rascal of an accomplice 'Cola,' played by Jim Cusack. Helena Enright, who attends Limerick Expressive Arts Studio, plays the part of Williamina Scarlet and Michael Cusack (alias Malachy) escapes from backstage to play Little John.

The Sheriff, Liam Ryan, brings a bit of law and order to proceedings, and Jim Supple, now in his fifth Panto production, takes on the saintly role of Friar Tuck. Catherine Woods, by the way, is not to be missed in her role as Alan-a-Dale.

Tradition

One of the traditions of the Society is to present some new talent to Limerick audiences and this year is no exception —

Two Limerick bands — They Do It With Mirrors (top) and The Cranberry Saw Us who will be looking forward to a busy and successful 1991.

the leading lady. Maaid Marion, is played by Tanyia O'Connell who came to us from Wexford and no doubt she will be a guaranteed delight with the audiences.

No Panto is complete without a dashing leading male and Padraig Power should carry this part off excellently. The 'Fairy,' Claire Nolan, adds a touch of magic; Erin O'Brien plays the part of the village girl, and Theresa Begley plays 'Much the Millar.'

Last but by no means least, the stars of the show — The 'Babes' — played by Olivia Stapleton, Jean McGlynn, Liam O'Brien and John Walsh.

The chorus numbers in the show are in the capable hands of Spotlight Stage School, Frontline and Limerick School of Ballet. The stage manager is Dave Malone.

The show takes place from January 1 to 6 with matinees on the 1st, 5th and 6th at 3 p.m. Admission is £3.50 for adults and £2.50 for children, O.A.P.s and unwaged with group rates also available. Curtain each night at 8 p.m.
