

The Cranberries

bound for the US

THE Cranberries, currently on a comprehensive tour of Europe with the Hothouse Flowers, taking in over 10 countries, are set to embark on their first US tour this month.

They finish their European dates in Zurich from where they travel directly to Denver to begin their US support tour with The The on Monday next, June 14.

This is a much coveted support slot with Matt Johnson's outfit, taking in dates on the East and West coasts of the US and playing to some very large audiences in the process.

The Cranberries have already created quite a stir in the States where their very fine debut album, Everybody Else Is Doing It So Why Can't We, has been selling very well since its recent release there.

The Cranberries return to the home sod to appear at Feile '93 and this will be their first appearance in Ireland since their near sell-out show at the Tivoli Theatre in early April.
