SOMETHING HAPPENS

■ Irish band Something Happens release their new album 'Bedlam A Go Go' in early June.

■ The Happens who have been one of Ireland's most critically acclaimed bands of the last five years are back in the game with a BOOM!

■ Says singer Tom Dunne "Bedlam A Go Go is a harder, darker album than anything we've done before. It's us here and now."

■ The band who have a new single 'Daisyhead' have been extensively touring both undercover and in their own right, so hardening their sound.

■ Catch the band at 4pm at the Virgin Megastore on June 6 in Dublin. Something is definitely happening ...

COMPUTER GAMES

TERMINATOR.....Nintendo

THE T-000 has come from the future. Its mission is to eliminate John Connor.

Against it stands one hope, you, a T-800 Terminator. Failure to protect John Connor could lead to the downfall of humanity.

T2 is set over five levels and it's another platform game for your Nintendo.

Good presentation and slick graphics with good sound to match.

However, it has one major flaw — it's simply neither exciting nor challenging.

A pretty decent game but there are a lot better platform games out there.

Price: £44.99.....Rating: 7/10

THE IMMORTAL.....Megadrive

★ JOURNEY through the frightening labyrinth where nightmares become a reality.

Zap and destroy the nasty creatures you encounter and hopefully you will once again come face to face with your teacher of Wizardry, Mordimir.

This is a brilliant arcade adventure with fab but grisly animations.

Immortal is a very involved game which makes it tough to play. Very good all round.

Price: £49.99.....Rating: 8/10.

DRIVE-IN ROCK N'ROLL!

GET ready for great rock n'roll drive-in movies at The Point and Cork Showgrounds!!!!

The Diet Coke Drive-In Movies which were launched by Gerry Ryan on Secrets are coming to town.

Complete with an "All American" theme village where you can jive to a different rock n'roll band each night and munch burgers and chips and drink plenty of Diet Coke.

The organizers say that everyone is guaranteed a bird's eye view of the 60ft wide by 40ft-high giant screen, which will be raised into the air by crane each night before the movie begins.

The 2FM roadcaster will be in position each evening, playing great rock n'roll hits from the 50s and 60s and providing the soundtrack for the film.

Movies confirmed (Dublin) are: The Commitments — Friday next; Home Alone — Saturday next; War Of The Roses — Sunday, May 31.

Same movies in Cork on June 19, 20, and 21.

Tickets — £10 per car for four persons from HMV and Promusica, Cork.

Band with the Blondie touch

★ THEY'RE from Limerick and they've produced what is widely thought of as the best EP of 1991.

Well, who are they??? They're The Cranberries (with echoes of Blondie and Cocteau Twins, some say) and they're the band with the best female voice in the country.

As someone said, 'Dolores, (the singer) sings down what must be the whole of her Irish ancestry in one glorious descent.'

The Cranberries have toured England and are bringing out a new single called 'Dreams' and a new album in the Autumn.

You can even write to them at 3, The Crescent, O'Connell Street, Limerick.

You've gotta see The Cranberries at The Rock Garden Wednesday next.
