HAPPY MONDAYS new single and live LP coming

HAPPY MONDAYS are about to go into the studio to record three new tracks - and they're also set to release a live album at the end of next month. The songs for the single aren't written yet, but the band have booked studio time in Manchester and a single from the sessions is scheduled for release by Factory in October. The Mondays will be working with Richard Norris and Dave Ball from The Grid. They first worked together on the Mondays' "Loose Fit" single. The single will be preceded by a live Mondays LP recorded at their Elland Road show on June 1. The band's spokeswoman told the Maker that the official live LP will be substantially different from the bootlegs currently circulating. Shaun Ryder plans to move house prior to beginning recording, and Mark Day is getting married.

WONDER STUFF

new single and December shows

THE WONDER STUFF have lined up a handful of Christmas dates. And they have also this week announced the release of a new single, "Sleep Alone", through Polydor on August 27. Taken from the "Never Loved Elvis" album, it's backed with the previously unreleased "El Hermano De Frank", a "fully-(over)blown" version of the 45-second "False Start" which appears on the LP. The 12-inch and CD versions feature an extra track, "The Takin' Is Easy".

The band are shortly leaving for tours of Europe, America, Australia and Japan, returning for UK dates at Manchester G-MEX (December 11), Leicester Granby Hall (12) and London Brixton Academy (14 and 15). Tickets are £9 for Manchester and Leicester, and £10 for Brixton.

PRIMALS add one
PRIMAL SCREAM have added a final, London date to their UK tour. They play Hammersmith Palais on October 12. Tickets are available now, priced £8.

NEW ORDER and U2 for Martin Hannett tribute LP

HAPPY MONDAYS, New Order and U2 are all featured on a tribute LP to Martin Hannett, the Manchester record producer who died at home in his sleep in April. The compilation is set for release by Factory at the end of this month. "Martin" features production work done by Hannett spanning the years between his first production on The Buzzcocks' "Breakdown" to his last, The High's "More". The proceeds of the album will go to Martin's family. Full track listing is: Buzzcocks' "Breakdown", Slaughter & The Dogs' "Cranked Up Really High", John Cooper Clarke's "Suspended Sentence", Joy Division's "She's Lost Control", Jilted John's "Jilted John", A Certain Ratio's "Do The Du", OMD's "Almost", U2's "11 O'Clock Tick Tock", New Order's "Everything's Gone Green", Happy Mondays' "Lazyitis", World Of Twist's "She's A Rainbow", New FADS' "Get Better" and The High's "More".

THE organisers of this weekend's Reading Festival are warning fans not to buy counterfeit wristbands that are being offered for sale in pubs in the Reading area. Although this year's festival is sold out, there will be tickets priced at £18 on each of the three days. The festival organisers are urging concert-goers to bring radios this year, as there will be a 24-hour FM festival radio station broadcasting interviews with the artists, guest celebrities and festival information.

BEATS INTERNATIONAL release a new single, "The Sun Doesn't Shine" next week. It's the first single to feature latest Beats International addition, singer Jordan Bailey. The single's backed by "Wake The Dead", while extended formats also carry an extra track, "Crazy For You". The band have just returned from, and this isn't a wind up, a tour of Botswana, Kenya, Zimbabwe and Zambia.

THE GRID, Richard Norris and Dave Ball, return this month with a new single for Virgin. "Boom" has become a club and Kiss FM hit over the last few weeks and is released by Virgin featuring the "Freestyle" and "707" mixes. It's backed by "Bonus Boom Beats".

THE PRODIGAL SONS, Waterboy Anthony Thistlethwaite's new band, play two shows at the Crouch End King's Head on August 24 and 31. Tickets are £3 and doors open at 8pm. The band features ex-Waterboy Kevin Wilkinson in its line up.

WORLD PARTY's Karl Wallinger and Peter Gabriel have been working together for the past week. They've been producing a series of 10 LPs, recorded live in the studio by a number of visiting WOMAD artists. The sessions were done at Gabriel's Real World Studios in Bath. Gabriel's own LP, which he's recording with Daniel Lanois, is due for release either at the end of this year or the start of next.

GUNS N' ROSES release the second single from their two "Use Your Illusion" LPs on September 2. It's called "Don't Cry" and comes in a gatefold hologram sleeve with a free sticker commemorating their August 31 Wembley Stadium gig. The single's backed by two more versions of "Don't Cry" - the demo version and one with alternative lyrics. The "Use Your Illusion" albums will be released by Geffen on September 16.

STONE ROSES live and unreleased material on the way

THE STONE ROSES have a repackaged version of their debut LP released by Silverstone on September 16, and will have "I Wanna Be Adored" released as a single for the first time ever at the start of next month. The single is backed by a previously unreleased track, "Where Angels Play", which was recorded during the sessions that eventually became the Roses debut album. It also includes a live version of "Sally Cinnamon", recorded live at the Hacienda. The first 25,000 copies of the record will come with a free print. A video for "I Wanna Be Adored" was recorded in Lanzarote at the same time as the "Fool's Gold" video.

Silverstone are also releasing a limited edition gatefold version of the band's debut album pressed on two 45rpm discs. There will also be new CD and cassette versions which will include "Elephant Stone" and "Fool's Gold". All formats will feature new artwork.

FLOWERED UP LP

FLOWERED UP release their debut LP, "A Life With Brian", on August 27 on Heavenly. The band, whose current double A-side single "It's On" / "Egg Rush" went straight into the Top 40 last week, recorded the album at Pete Townshend's Eel Pie studio. It includes a re-recorded version of the early single "Phobia".

Full tracklisting is: "Sunshine", "Take It", "Crackerjack", "Mr Happy Reveller", "Hysterically Blue", "It's On", "Silver Pan", "Phobia", "Egg Rush" and "Doris Is A Little Bit Partial".

MANICS explode!

MANIC STREET PREACHERS, CHAPTERHOUSE and THE ATOM SEED are headlining three nights at the London Marquee next month as part of the 1991 Yamaha Band Explosion.

The first show, on September 3, features Chapterhouse, Slowdive and Moose. The September 4 bill brings together Manic Street Preachers, 5.30 and Intastella, and on September 5, The Atom Seed are joined by Teenage Fanclub and The Catherine Wheel. Each band will play a 30-minute set. Tickets are £7 from the box office, and one opening act for each of the three nights has yet to be confirmed.

The whole event will be broadcast live by Radio 1 and hosted by Mark Goodier. It will also be filmed for BBC TV, and two 30-minute programmes will be broadcast on DEF 2 on two consecutive Mondays at the end of September.

CRANBERRIES in Camden

THE CRANBERRIES are playing another low-key gig this month. The Limerick band who've just signed to Island Records following ecstatic music press reviews, will appear with The Katydids at Camden Underworld on August 29. This is in addition to their support to The House Of Love at their T&C gig on August 31.
