TWO Bury St Edmunds bands proved to be the best in the county at a competition in Ipswich on Saturday.

Auricle, fresh from winning a band competition at Reflex Nightclub, Bury, a fortnight ago, came out top of eight groups in the open section of the Suffolk Rock and Pop Competition.

While in the under 21 section teenage four piece, Surprise Attack won through after playing only their third live performance for the judges at Ipswich Corn Exchange. Both bands won £300 and studio recording time worth £300.

Hard rockers Surprise Attack won best song and lead singer, Paul Gladwell was voted best vocalist with Rebecca Baker of Vital Signs.

Auricle also won best song and most promising guitarist for Alistair Ratcliffe.
