Hi there,
Well I just got back from Italy where I spent three weeks relaxing with my wife. Dolores was in Canada for a few weeks with her husband and son; Noel and his wife went to the Caribbean and Mike and his wife were in Portugal. Everyone had a great time and the "batteries are recharged".
Our tour manager is getting married in a few days so that should be a good day out.
We have decided to release "Just My Imagination" in the U.S.A., so we will be doing the video for that at the end of this month, and then we go to Florida to rehearse for a week before we begin our U.S. tour. That's about it I'm afraid (I'm so boring aren't I ?) Talk to you soon,
All the best,

Fergal.

Hi there,
We are still in Los Angeles doing various bits and pieces. We were all out at dinner the other night and we were talking about the past month or so and everyone agreed that they were so surprised by the reaction to "Bury The Hatchet". We would like to thank you all so much for your support, we really appreciate it. This tour that we've just finished is the most fun we have had in years, so it's a good indication of what's to come for the next leg.
There are lot's of poeple asking what countries we are coming to over the next year, all I can promise is that we are going to try to get to as many countries as possible, but we are wary of getting worn out again so we are taking it step by step. We will keep you posted in the touring section of this page.
I've been speaking to lot's of people after concerts that we've done, and everyone has been really cool and supportive of this web site, so THANK YOU!!!!!! That's about it for now I'm going to try to get my hands on some interviews we've done and post them up here so, that might answer any questions you might have.
If you are wondering where the message board has gone, well...we tried it, and unfortunately it was being bombarded with unnecessary foul language and such like. We don't want anybody to get insulted when visiting anything associated with this site. I hope you will understand.

Talk to you soon,

Fergal.
