Hello again!

Yes, I know, it has been AGES since I last wrote, even Mike added a bit since! (Thanks Mike!) Apologies to you all, I have just been really busy with the preparation for the upcoming album, promotional tour, and all that goes with it!

As you know, the video shoot got delayed, and will now take place on August 3rd and 4th. After that we are off to North America to do various promotional appearances around the USA and Canada for the rest of the month of August, more details on exactly when and where later, but I can say that we will be in Los Angeles, Boulder, Chicago, Minneapolis, New York City, and Canada. When we play live we will be doing semi-acoustic performances. September should see us in Europe, doing pretty much the same thing. By the way, thanks for participating in the survey,...there were some surprises in the top 10, especially "Empty" and "Ridiculous Thoughts" as acoustic favourites! Anyway, as I said, we will let you know more details on those appearances as soon as they are confirmed.

The HTML version of this site is still being cooked, and should be up and running by the start of August. The current "OPEN GATE" section of the site will change to "WUASTC" (short for?) and it will feature all things to do with the new album! Excited?

By the way, if you are a Formula 1 fan, I can only recommend that you go see a race live! I was at the Silverstone Grand Prix in England last weekend to support the Jordan Team, and boy, what an experience! The sound from the engines just takes your breath away! Woo-hoo! It seems faster too, than it looks on TV.

Seeya later!

-Fergal.
