

August 1st 2001

Hello! Hi I'm baaack !

I've been on holidays for the past few weeks in Italy. I've just walked in the door of the rehearsal studio and decided to write a few words. Rainer just told me that the HTML version of the site is ready to-day so hopefully a lot of people who have been having trouble with the flash version will enjoy a stress-free visit to Cranberry-land.

...writing this message at the webmaster's computer..August 01st 2001.

Everyone is in good spirits and ready to get stuck in for the next two years or so. We are rehearsing for the next couple weeks and then it's off to "the good ol' U.S.A" for a few gigs and lots of interviews (which includes Canada). I must say I can't wait , I enjoy my time off but I'm starting to get itchy feet again, I reckon I have nomadic blood in me somewhere!! Mike's just after arriving so If you'll excuse me I'm going to join him in the kitchen to chew the fat as I haven't seen him in a few weeks.

As usual you can check out the official news in the NEWS section.

See ya later! - Fergal.

P.S. Many thanks to Sebastian Clayton and all the gang at Digital:CC in Dublin for doing such a nice job on the HTML site!
