

October 3rd 2001

Hi again ,

Greetings from Paris France. The promo work is going great, and things are moving along nicely.

Yesterday, (as you may know) we did an online webchat on www.UNIVERSALMUSIC.fr (FRANCE). I know that we advertised it on our website, and I also know that many of you participated! The people in the studio where we did the webchat said that it was their busiest one ever! We arrived a little late, as we got stuck in traffic, but I found that it went very quickly, and it was not possible to answer all the questions! But, the main reason I am writing this is to say that we did not realise that the answers would only be put online in French! Sorry about that, but when in Rome, do as the Romans do, I suppose.

Here's my offer. Send short questions to cranberries@elive.ie, write "Question For Fergal" in the subject line, and I will pick the best questions and do my best to post all the answers right here as soon as I get a chance to answer them, when I get back home next week! Is that fair?

Anyway. We are still in Paris, where we are performing for "Hit Machine" which is being taped to go out on TV on channel M6 in France next Saturday. Their website is here.

Tomorrow we are in London performing "Analyse" for the tv show "Top Of The Pops" which will broadcast at a later date to be confirmed. Then, the next one of big interest I suppose will be appearing on "CD UK" this coming Saturday morning LIVE on ITV at 11.30am(ish). Check out the CD UK schedule here: CDUK
