LATEST UPDATES

05TH OCTOBER - SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT

To all the fans,

Over the last seven years Alex has been approached by management, labels, friends, and finally myself on numerous occasions to release Doloresoriordan.com so I could start my own website with my own name. I have offered to purchase the name, I have offered to let him help design and run the site, but each time I have had the door closed on me. This has absolutely nothing to do with Zombieguides or the wonderful job he has done over the last nine years for the Cranberries, my solo project and all of the fans. It's sad that he has chosen to shut down the site but that is his decision. I wish him all the best in the future.

Lots of Love

-Dolores xx

PS: Stay tuned for a updated site soon!!
