Thank you ❤️❤️❤️

It's been a moving week, full of moments that show how these songs continue to find new life. We're overwhelmed that our 1994 MTV Unplugged session, released for the first time, has reached #8 on the Billboard Vinyl Chart. To then be honored with the Rolling Stone UK Icon Award truly shows how far our music has traveled from its beginnings. The living legacy of our music was on full display as Noel was joined by Royel Otis to perform "Linger" – a song that has recently resonated with so many new listeners. From our studio sessions in the 90s to the way you now find and create anew with these songs, it's your connection that gives this music its lasting purpose. We have no doubt Dolores would be smiling down on it all.

Thank you,
Fergal, Noel, and Mike
